Project 61 is a unique youth camp that pairs God-centered urban ministry training with the opportunity for youth to reach out in the city. Every morning youth help local coaches staff a sports camp at the Rose Bowl as a way of expressing love to kids and communicating to them the life-giving hope of the Gospel. In the afternoon and evenings the youth participate in exciting games, awesome worship, and Christ-exalting teaching. Campers stay in cabins at Keystone State Park and commute to sports camp.
